

VOTER REGISTRATION

The New York Conservatory for Dramatic Arts notifies students three times a year via their school email accounts about the importance of exercising their right to vote. We inform students to find out how they can register to vote by going to the following websites for information: Rock the Vote, Voting As a College Student, or Project Vote Smart.